

LEONLOARD COMMISSIONED PORTRAITS

Artist: Coni Belleau Adams, Palm Beach, Florida

A New York area native, she attended the Traphagen School of Design and Fashion Illustration, Parsons School of Visual Arts, and the Art Students League. She gains inspiration from past and present renowned painters, which influence her greatly. For many years, Coni Adams worked in New York as a free lance fashion illustrator, and now creates portrait masterpieces. She has studied with Robert Brackman, Sidney Dickinson and Daniel Greene.

Her work has been exhibited in many galleries, shown in solo shows in major cities, and hangs in hundreds of private and corporate collections. Adams belongs to the National Arts Club, Salmagundi Club, Metropolitan Portrait Society, Copley Society of Boston, and Artists' Fellowship. Her work has appeared in Art & Antiques, Town and Country, Southern Accents, and Veranda magazines and was profiled in the 1991 New York Art Review. In the past, she has served on the Advisory Board of Directors of The American Society of Portrait Artists.

Adams' style and technique utilizes an impressionistic palette of pale tints, bright colors and colorful shadows. Clients throughout the country have fallen in love with her loose, dreamlike background with focused attention on the subject's face. She works from a combination of life and photography in a wet on wet treatment. By traveling to many parts of the country to work, Adams enjoys the excitement and challenges of being with her clients in their own environment.
